KYKLOS IDEON organizes events and public debates, sponsored and supported by NATO's Public Diplomacy Division.

KYKLOS IDEON has organized a public event under the auspices of the Secretary General of the Council of Europe on 17.1.2020.

ELLADA META

KYKLOS IDEON in collaboration with SYMEON G. TSOMOKOS SA, organized in June 2017, its first annual conference, under the title “Ellada Meta”

50 rapporteurs in 6 round tables, participated synthesizing proposals on the idea of Ellada Meta, i.e. after the experience of memoranda, after the second face of the crisis erupted in 2015, after the end of the ruthless anti-memorandum rhetoric”.

In the second annual conference held in June 2018, 56 speakers in 7 round tables gathered to discuss the issue of a new narrative for the country in the context of the coming 200th anniversary of the Independence Revolution of 1821.

The third annual conference (June 2019) Ellada Meta III, focused on the Restitution of the Middle Class, the backbone of Greece’s society and economy. 7 workshops and 56 speakers presented and analyzed their proposals for a sustainable restitution of the Greek middle class, in the context of a new strategy of growth.

The fourth annual conference (September 2020) Ellada Meta IV, focused on the Pandemic. Due to the health restrictions and regulations that have come about from the COVID-19 virus, the event took place in digital format, as an online three days conference. The central theme for this year’s conference was: Greece After (?) the Pandemic.

eKYKLOS WATCH:

A civil-society Observatory for the implementation of the EU Recovery and Resilience Fund in Greece

In July 2020, Kyklos Ideon launched the initiative "eKyklos.Watch: A civil-society Observatory for the implementation of the EU Recovery and Resilience Fund in Greece". The objective of the Observatory is to follow and monitor the activities related to the implementation of the Greek Recovery and Resilience Plan, funded by the recently created Recovery and Resilience Facility. The Facility will make €672.5 billion in loans and grants available to support reforms and investments undertaken by Member States, in the objective to mitigate the economic and social impact of the recent Covid-19 pandemic, and support the twin the green and digital transformation of the European Union.

The eKyklos.Watch is composed of distinguished representatives of the Greek civil and scientific society, with policy, administrative and high professional experience, having a deep knowledge of the European and national government policies, processes and practices (and experience from running and evaluating similar projects in the past), and contributing on a voluntary basis. Among them, Former Ministers and Secretaries General, former European Commission officials, University professors and Researchers, former Senior Judicial officials, as well as private sector and civil society's staff members.
